Fundraiser for Bill Talbott, Sheridan Public Library Director

In late December, Bill totaled his car while driving on icy roads near Bozeman. Fortunately, he wasn't hurt but is now without wheels. Bill performs many duties at the Library - computer assistance, research, organizing art & club activities, helping book clubs obtain selected materials, provide e-materials, etc. And a good part of Bill's responsibilities is traveling to other libraries in our area for inter-library loans when our Library doesn't have a patron's requested copy on our shelves.

To thank Bill for all he does for the Library and our community, a fund-raising account has been set up at the Opportunity Bank in Sheridan in Bill's name to help him get back on the road.

Any donation amount will be most appreciated!

Petticoats, Pants and Politics:
Fashion and the Quest for Freedom

"When you find a burden in belief or apparel, cast it off!" wrote 19th century dress reform advocate Amela Bloomer, for whom the bloomer costume, the most scandalous clothing of the era, was named. Throughout history, clothing has been an ever-evolving mechanism used to regulate society. In return, fashion has been an important outlet through which individuals could rebel against the rules and laws that limit freedoms. Join scholar and historic interpreter Mary Jane Bradbury as she weaves the powerful forces of fashion with social and political reform across history and discusses the idea that fashion has rarely been about what it looks like as much as what it represents. Feel free to dress in your best duds, historic or otherwise!
