Mox is currently receiving chemotherapy treatments in Salt Lake that will last approximately one year. Mox is self-employed and a very hard worker. Leslie & Ada Gilman

Leslie G. Gilman was born on July 6, 1877 in Madison County, Ruby Valley, Montana, at the ranch his father and mother, Isaac Harvey and Ella (Paige) Gilman. On November 28, 1876, Isaac passed away from a run away team accident before he was able to meet his new son. Ella continued to homestead a few miles south of the town of Ruby. Leslie started grade school in 1882 at the Taylor schoolhouse, 100 yards from the Gilman ranch.

In 1883 the family moved to a ranch on the Beaverhead where Leslie attended the Centerville school, living there until 1891, when the family moved to Bickleton, Washington. Leslie and his brother, Roy, drove the stock and wagons and worked in the wheat fields. In 1889 they returned to the Ruby Valley where the two boys lived and worked for their Uncle Sam Paige, helping build his large brick house.

In 1903 the town of Ruby was planning a Fourth of July celebration and to add to the festivities, Leslie Gilman built a horse-drawn merry-go-round. After watching the merry-go-round operate, the Superintendent of the Conrey Gold Mining Company approached Leslie and stated: "Our company has a place for a young man with the ingenuity to figure out such a project, and the ability to make it."

Leslie then went to work for Conrey Company on his 26th birthday, July 6, 1903. During the next 20 years he did practically every kind of work—assayer, surveyor and electrical work. His main charge, however, was to clean the gold amalgam out of the dredge riffles, purify it, mold gold bricks and then deliver it to the railroad at Alder for shipment to the mint.

While working for the Conrey Company, Leslie received a scholarship from the International Correspondence School of Scranton, Pennsylvania and received a Diploma in Electrical Engineering on September 24, 1904.

Leslie's future wife, Ada Margaret Taylor was born March 4, 1886, at the Ruby River home of her parents, William and Charity Taylor. She went to school at the Taylor Schoolhouse not far from her home. On June 20, 1906, she married Leslie Gilman at the home of Ada's parents.

Their four children were all born in Ruby, from 1907 to 1916: Lela, Harold, Elaine and Lowell. Harold married Alice Peggy Costle of Sheridan; Lowell married Laura Moore of Sheridan; Elaine married Richard Kunkel of Butte.

In 1922, when the gold dredges were shut down, Leslie purchased the dredge property at Ruby and surrounding ranch land and for 33 years he engaged in ranching and stock raising, in later years with his two sons, Harold and Lowell.

It has been said that no story of the town of Ruby would be complete without the story of Leslie Gilman, nor would any story of Mr. Gilman be complete without that of the town of Ruby.

Leslie Gilman died at his home in Ruby, January 6, 1955 and was buried in the Taylor Cemetery. He saw the town of Ruby spring up, prosper, and then die at the site of his home. He was a valued citizen of Ruby, a 50 year trustee of the Methodist Church of Ruby and Sheridan, a 48-year member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, a 20-year trustee of Ruby school and a member of the Sons and Daughters of Montana Pioneers.

Ada Gilman died February 23, 1969, at age 83, a native and lifetime resident of the Ruby Valley, also buried in the Taylor Cemetery near Ruby. She was an active church worker, a charter member of the Bethel Methodist Church at Sheridan, Sunday School Superintendent in Ruby, member of Sons and Daughters of Montana Pioneers, Ruby Valley Woman's Club and the Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service.

"How far you go in life depends on your being tender with the young, compassionate with the aged, sympathetic with the striving and tolerant of the weak and strong, because someday in your life you will have been all of these."
- George Washington Carver

Pruning Trees and Shrubs

Pruning can sometimes be a daunting task, especially if you're not sure where to begin! This workshop will include a class that covers the basics and best practices for pruning your landscape trees and shrubs (including ornamentals and fruit trees). There will also be a hands-on pruning activity to practice your pruning skills before you tackle your own landscape.

Join us March 27, 2024 from 12-2pm

at Jackson's Garden,
125 Mill Creek Road,
Sheridan, MT 59749
