TWIN BRIDGES EARLY YEAR CELEBRATIONS

In the late 1800's and early 1900's, celebrations were held in Twin Bridges which came in many forms and many times throughout the year. Held in July of 1898 Twin Bridges the largest 4th of July ever held in the town because of the newly placed train tracks. These trains would bring thousands every weekend to fish, celebrate and just get away from mining city air. All day, a chorus of 75 singers with music was furnished by the Twin Bridges and Rochester brass band. There were double handed drilling matches to win a purse of $40. Local baseball teams would play each other to win a purse of $20. A greased pig was let loose and any man that caught it and held on to it could take it home.

Other activities included a 100 yard foot race to win $10, egg race to win $5, tug a war to win $10, a 1/2 mile horse race to win $40 and a 600 yard pony race to win $10. A dance was also held with fireworks to end the day.

Twin Bridges also put on a Maccabee picnic in August of 1902 which brought in about 900 people from Butte alone. People came by train, horse or stage coach. Tickets were sold in Alder, Laurin, Ruby and Virginia City and was said to bring in another 1,000 who attended the celebration. Music, dancing, baseball, basketball, food and entertainment were the attractions. Two baseball teams that played at this event was Twin Bridges vs. Virginia City.

The ending score was 14 to 5 in favor of Twin Bridges. The children from the State Orphans home played the school children of Twin Bridges in a baseball and a basketball game both ending in a draw. The Twin Bridges Brass Band played all day long and the most popular drink served was pink lemonade. Ella Ewing was a stand-out visitor for this event. I say stand-out as she was 8 feet 4 inches tall and wore a size 24 shoe. She was a Missouri woman considered the world's tallest female of her era. She would use her great height to earn a living as a sideshow attraction, popularly known as "The Missouri Giantess."

Twin Bridges was a popular place to visit on the weekends as the residents beautified the little town in the summer with many flowers and clean yards, The locals held picnics and baseball games, invited orchestras to play that were widely known and held horse races and popular fairs at what we now know as the Madison County Fair.

During early day elections for Montana, politicians swooped in to make long speeches. Gov J.K. Toole was one who would make many stops in Twin Bridges in the early 1900's to push a vote.

The famous Carter-Gorman Orchestra played in Twin Bridges on weekends. Plays were held at the upstairs of the Masonic Lodge (Blue Anchor now) featuring acts like Bert Martin, The Duchess and Little Major, Amos Hall and Billy Bonner, C.W. Sherwood and James Walker and more. Balls were held to help raise money for different needs and some served a dinner for just a couple of dollars. Church picnics with home made ice cream and cakes were held with games that are no longer played today.

Times have changed but events are still going strong in Twin Bridges. Watch for the Cornhole tournament on April 15th and the Twin Bridges Bluegrass Festival held June 28th to July 2nd both held at the Madison County Fairgrounds.
