I want to sincerely thank everyone who took the time to get out and vote — and especially those who cast their vote for me.

While the results didn't go the way I hoped, I'm truly humbled by the 75 friends and neighbors who believed in my message and vision for Sheridan's future. Your support means the world to me.

Running for Town Council gave me the opportunity to listen, learn, and connect with so many of you about the issues that matter most — from keeping our town affordable to protecting the community values that make Sheridan such a special place to live.

I plan to stay involved, keep showing up, and continue working to make a positive difference however I can. Thank you again for your trust, encouragement, and friendship throughout this campaign. — Mike Z.
